

SUBLEASE INFORMATION

The following information and suggestions will help you in subletting your apartment:

1. You must submit written notification of your intention to sublease your apartment to sublease@icmproperties.com. You must include the exact date you will be moving out of your apartment, your email address, a phone number, and when your sublease shall begin (typically the first day of the month). ICM will not process any applications or sign any agreements until written notification has been received.
2. In order to sublease your apartment, it is your responsibility to advertise and show your apartment to any interested party. No sublease will be approved if the intended party has not viewed the apartment; emailing pictures is NOT an acceptable form of showing the apartment. The following methods have been successful for other tenants. Please contact them directly for further information.
 - www.craigslist.com
 - www.zillow.com
 - www.domu.com
 - www.hotpads.com
 - Hang fliers and notices in local coffee shops and stores
3. Please inform anyone interested in your apartment to fill out an application on our website. They can apply online using this link: <https://icmproperties.com/sublet-parking-application>. For "Lease type" have them select "Sublet". There is a $75.00 application fee per applicant that will need to be paid online. After we receive their application, we will provide them with a temporary account to pay the application fee. It will take approximately 2 business days for an application to be processed. You may only sublease to as many people as your lease states; if there is only one person on the lease then only one person may sublease the apartment. ICM has a no-dog policy; however, cats and most small animals are accepted. Additional fees will apply for approved animals.
4. You can follow up with ICM 48 hours after applications have been submitted. Do NOT assume that an application will result in a lease, even if it is complete and submitted to our office. Applicants frequently back out before leases are signed or are not approved for the apartment for various reasons such as (but not limited to) credit screening results. You must call or email ICM to confirm and verify that you have successfully subleased your apartment.
5. If your sublease is approved, you will be contacted by ICM and a sublease agreement will be emailed to you and the intended sublessor. This sublease agreement must be fully signed and with any additional monies owed by the deadline stated in the email. If the paperwork cannot be emailed, then you must set up an appointment to sign the paperwork.
6. Remember that a sublease does not terminate your legal or financial responsibility to the lease or the apartment. The intended sublease will become your subtenant; you are still liable for the apartment until the lease expires. The apartment is subleased "as-is," and no major work will be done such as painting, floor vanishing, etc.
7. The landlord will make a good faith effort to help the tenant re-rent the dwelling at a fair rental price and will consider a reasonable sublease proposed by the tenant as covering terms as determined by the CRLTO.
8. We understand that every situation is singular; if you have any concerns or questions about subleasing your apartment, do not hesitate to contact our office to receive additional information or assistance.

DISCLOSURE OF TENANT SELECTION CRITERIA PURSUANT TO JUST HOUSING AMENDMENT INTERPRETIVE RULE 730.100

ICM PROPERTIES, INC., is an equal opportunity housing provider and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, sex, gender identity, age, religion, disability, national origin, ancestry sexual orientation, marital status, parental status, military status, or source of income.

Rental applications are accepted or denied in compliance with applicable housing laws.

PRE-QUALIFICATION: VERIFICATION OF RENTAL, EMPLOYMENT, INCOME, AND CREDIT HISTORY

Upon completion of your rental application providing basic personal information, ICM processes each application using a commercially available, comprehensive, electronic tenant background search service which yields a Rental Score. No criminal background check is conducted at this stage of the application process. Pre-qualification includes the following evaluations:

- Rental Score. Applicants with a Rental Score below 400 are denied. Applicants with a Rental Score between 400 and 600 may require a guarantor and/or additional review of proof of income, employment history, or additional documentation. An applicant's "Rental Score" is determined from a mathematical analysis of information found in your consumer credit report, application, and previous rental history. The consumer credit report may include payment history, number and type of accounts, collection activity, outstanding debt, and inquiries. In addition, the rental scoring process may consider information such as income to rent ratio, previous eviction and subprime credit records. Note that your rental score does not include or otherwise reflect any criminal records.
 - A collection action instituted on any judgment within the last four (4) years and which remains unpaid will result in denial.
 - A bankruptcy filing within the last four (4) years will result in denial.
- Rental History.
 - Applicant must have verifiable rental history.
 - Evidence of evictions, abandonment, or rent left owing to a prior landlord within seven (7) years of application date are grounds for denial.
 - A poor rental reference within the last two (2) years is grounds for denial.
- Income. ICM does not discriminate on the basis of the applicant's source of income. The applicant's gross monthly income from all sources must be at least three times the applicant's monthly rental obligation. If minimum income threshold is not met, the application may be denied unless another individual guarantees the applicant's obligations under the lease.
- All lease guarantors must complete an application. Upon completion of an application providing basic personal information, ICM processes each guarantor application using a commercially available, comprehensive, electronic tenant background search service to produce a Rental Score. The Rental Score as well as the combination of the proposed rent plus the proposed guarantor's own housing obligations must qualify.
- False information supplied in an application shall result in the application being denied.

CRIMINAL BACKGROUND CHECK

Every application that is pre-qualified is subject to a criminal background check. ICM uses a commercially available criminal background search service.

ICM's application process does not consider criminal history older than three (3) years prior to the application date. Only evidence of criminal convictions, which excludes juvenile convictions will be considered in the application process upon receiving search results showing conviction(s) and will only be considered after timely receipt of information from the applicant disputing the accuracy and relevance of any convictions, at which time ICM will conduct an Individualized Assessment of the applicant's criminal conviction history and consider all factors relevant to an individual's criminal conviction history and whether that criminal conviction history negatively impacts the individual's ability to fulfill the responsibilities of tenancy, including, but not limited to:

- The nature, severity, and recency of the conduct underlying the individual's specific conviction(s);
- The nature of the individual's sentencing;
- The number of the individual's convictions;
- The length of time that has passed following the individual's most recent conviction;
- The age of the individual at the time of the most recent conviction;
- Evidence of rehabilitation;
- The individual's tenant history before and/or after the conviction;
- Whether the criminal conviction(s) was/were related to or a product of the applicant's disability; and
- If the applicant is a person with a disability, whether any reasonable accommodation could be provided to ameliorate any purported demonstrable risk.

If the Multi-State Sex Offender report returns a "match," the application will be denied.

ICM reserves the right to deny any application or continuing occupancy of any apartment on the basis of a current sex offender registration requirement pursuant to the Sex Offender Registration Act or similar law that is applicable in Chicago; a current child sex offender residency restriction; or when federal or state law mandates such denial.

YOUR RIGHTS AFTER A CRIMINAL BACKGROUND SEARCH

Section 42-38 of the Cook County Code of Ordinances gives you the right to dispute the accuracy and relevance of any conviction shown in a criminal background search and to provide mitigating information, including evidence of rehabilitation.

Before an owner may deny admission or continued occupancy on the basis of a conviction, the owner must first give the individual sufficient notice and an opportunity to dispute the accuracy and relevance of the conviction.

PROCEDURES

- Within five (5) days of obtaining a background check on an applicant, the housing provider must deliver a copy of the background check to the applicant. The housing provider must complete delivery in one of the following ways: (1) in person, (2) by certified mail, or (3) by electronic communication (e.g., text, email).

- Once a housing provider completes delivery, the applicant shall have an additional five (5) business days to produce evidence that disputes the accuracy or relevance of information related to any criminal convictions from the last three (3) years. Information is relevant if it affects the likelihood that the applicant poses a demonstrable risk to the personal safety and/or property of others. “Demonstrable risk” refers to the likelihood of harm to other residents’ personal safety and/or likelihood of serious damage to property. When the applicant is a person with a disability, “demonstrable risk” must be based on (a) objective evidence and (b) a conclusion that any purported risk cannot be reduced or eliminated by a reasonable accommodation.
- A housing provider must either approve or deny an individual’s housing application within three (3) business days of receipt of information from the applicant disputing or rebutting the information contained in the criminal background check.
- Any denial of admission or continued occupancy based on a conviction must be in writing and must provide the applicant an explanation of why denial based on criminal conviction is necessary to protect against a demonstrable risk of harm to personal safety and/or property.
- The written denial must also contain a statement informing the housing applicant of their right to file a complaint with the Commission.
